

Substance Use Disorder Treatment and Recovery Loan Repayment Program

Program Topic	Program Details
Program Description	The Substance Use Disorder Treatment and Recovery Loan Repayment Program (STAR LRP) provides loan repayment for individuals working in a full-time substance use disorder (SUD) treatment job that involves direct patient care in a: - County/municipality where the average drug overdose death rate exceeds the most current national average overdose death rate per 100,000 people, as reported by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), or - Mental Health Professional Shortage Area (MHPSA).
Eligible Disciplines and Specialties	Providers working at STAR LRP-approved SUD treatment facilities: - Certified Nursing Assistants - Certified Medical Assistants - Licensed Occupational Therapists - Licensed Clinical Social Workers - Licensed Professional Counselors - Marriage and Family Therapists - Master's-level Social Workers - Psychologists - Marriage and Family Therapists - Psychiatric Mental Health Practitioners - Occupational Therapists - Psychology Doctoral Interns - Behavioral health paraprofessionals, including but not limited to: - Community Health Workers, - Peer Recovery Specialists, - Case Managers and - Health Navigators. - Physicians - Physician Assistants - Nurse Practitioners - Registered Nurses - Certified Registered Nurse Anesthetists - Certified Nurse Midwives - Clinical Nurse Specialists - Licensed Practical Nurses - Psychiatric Nurse Specialists - Pharmacists - Substance Use Disorder (SUD) Counselors
Service Commitment	6-year full-time service commitment
Financial Benefits	Up to $250,000 for eligible educational loans

Program Topic	Program Details
Application Requirements and Funding Priority Information	Applicants must be U.S. citizens (born or naturalized), U.S. nationals, or lawful permanent residents. Applicants receive award preference if they are clinicians/health workers: • Working at STAR LRP- approved facilities located in a County/municipality where the average drug overdose death rate exceeds the most current national average; or • Working at approved STAR LRP–approved facilities located in a Mental Health Professional Shortage Area (MHPSA).
Selection Factors	After funding priority, we will select applicants according to the duration of tenure at STAR LRP-approved facility.
Tax Liability	Taxable
Where Clinicians Serve	Eligible STAR LRP facilities* can include but are not limited to: • American Indian Health facilities and Indian Health Service (IHS) hospitals • Community health centers • Community outpatient facilities • Crisis stabilization units • Critical Access Hospitals • Detox Facilities • Emergency Departments • Faith-based settings • Federally Qualified Health Care Centers (FQHCs) • FQHC Look-Alikes • Health system-affiliated inpatient treatment center • Inpatient/Outpatient Rehabilitation • Local Community Jails and Detention Centers • Migrant Health Center • Mobile units and free clinics Inpatient psychiatric facilities • Office-based opioid treatment facilities (OBOTs) • Prevention Coalition/Agency • Private practices • Recovery Center • Rural Emergency Hospitals (REHs) • Rural Health Clinics (RHCs) • SAMHSA-certified outpatient treatment programs (OTPs) • School-based clinics • State or federal correctional facilities • State or local health departments • Veterans Administration (VA) Facilities • Youth detention center or program *Get more details on eligible facility types and becoming a STAR LRP-approved facility.
Websites	Learn more about the STAR LRP .

